THE TIDES

OF LIFE

In nature, the passage of time is symbolized by the tides. They are the rhythm of life, eternal life, ceaselessly flowing back and forth, from age to age. Tides can give hope for the future and remembrances of the past, for they have always existed and always will.

On a smaller scale tides represent the highs and lows of every individual's life. One can feel gladness, only when one has known sadness; one can feel fullness only when one has known emptiness.

Duxbury has a unique relationship with the sea. Our coastal town witnesses daily the extreme fluctuations of the tides. The tides will always be a major part of our memories growing up on the seashore.

Our hope is that the meaning of tides will be remembered by everyone, so that no matter what the future may bring, people can keep their individual lives in perspective with time and eternity and enjoy each moment to the fullest.

To The Class of 1983:

As graduation nears, most of you have probably come to realize that you are approaching a major transition time in your life. When you turn eighteen, you become an adult in the eyes of society. Within a few brief months, a majority of you will leave Duxbury for college. Others of you will begin employment and may reside in another town or city. Some of you will join the armed forces and may travel to other parts of the world. What is important in all of this is that your relationship with Duxbury, the town that has been virtually your total environment for many years, is changing and will not be the same again.

Yes, you will return for the major holidays, and maybe even for a summer or two. But, you will have found many new horizons that will surpass those of this small and quiet seaside community.

But, as you go, remember that you carry with you the values, knowledge and special memories of your accomplishments and failures established here in your formative years. The faculty and I hope that we have prepared you well to go forth into the world and to triumph. And all of us look forward to hearing about your own special life adventures in the years ahead.

Know that a part of each of us goes with each of you!

The personality of a school is the result of the interaction of students and faculty with the traditions of the school. Because generations of students turn over so quickly, each class materially changes (in one way or another) the traditions of a high school and thereby its basic personality.

The class of 1983 should look back on their four years at Duxbury High School with a good deal of pride. You have left behind you a significant record of achievement and a sense of social maturity that has enhanced the traditions of this school.

For this I thank you and wish you the best in all the years to follow.

John W. Hill
Principal

John R. Pierce

I would like to extend a personal word of congratulation and gratitude to the class of 1983. Individually and collectively you have distinguished yourselves and been a source of genuine pride to everyone in the DHS community.

By any definition it is clear that the class of 1983 has achieved extraordinary excellence in scholarship, athletics, dramatics, music, service and leadership. Your maturity, sense of responsibility and self discipline have served you very well and are certain to provide much future success.

My best wishes to each of you for health, happiness and lives that are rich in meaning and satisfaction.

Vice Principal

THE TIDE RISES, THE TIDE FALLS

There is a tide
in the affairs of men
When taken at the flood leads onto fortune

— Shakespeare

When I compare
What I have lost and what I have gained
What I have missed with what attained
Little room do I find for pride
I am aware
How many days have been idly spent;
How like an arrow with good intent
Has fallen short or been turned aside.
But who shall dare
To measure loss and gain in this wise?
Defeat may be victory in disguise;
The lowest ebb is the turn of the tide.
— Longfellow

Time and tide wait for no man.

— Anonymous

Sea Fever

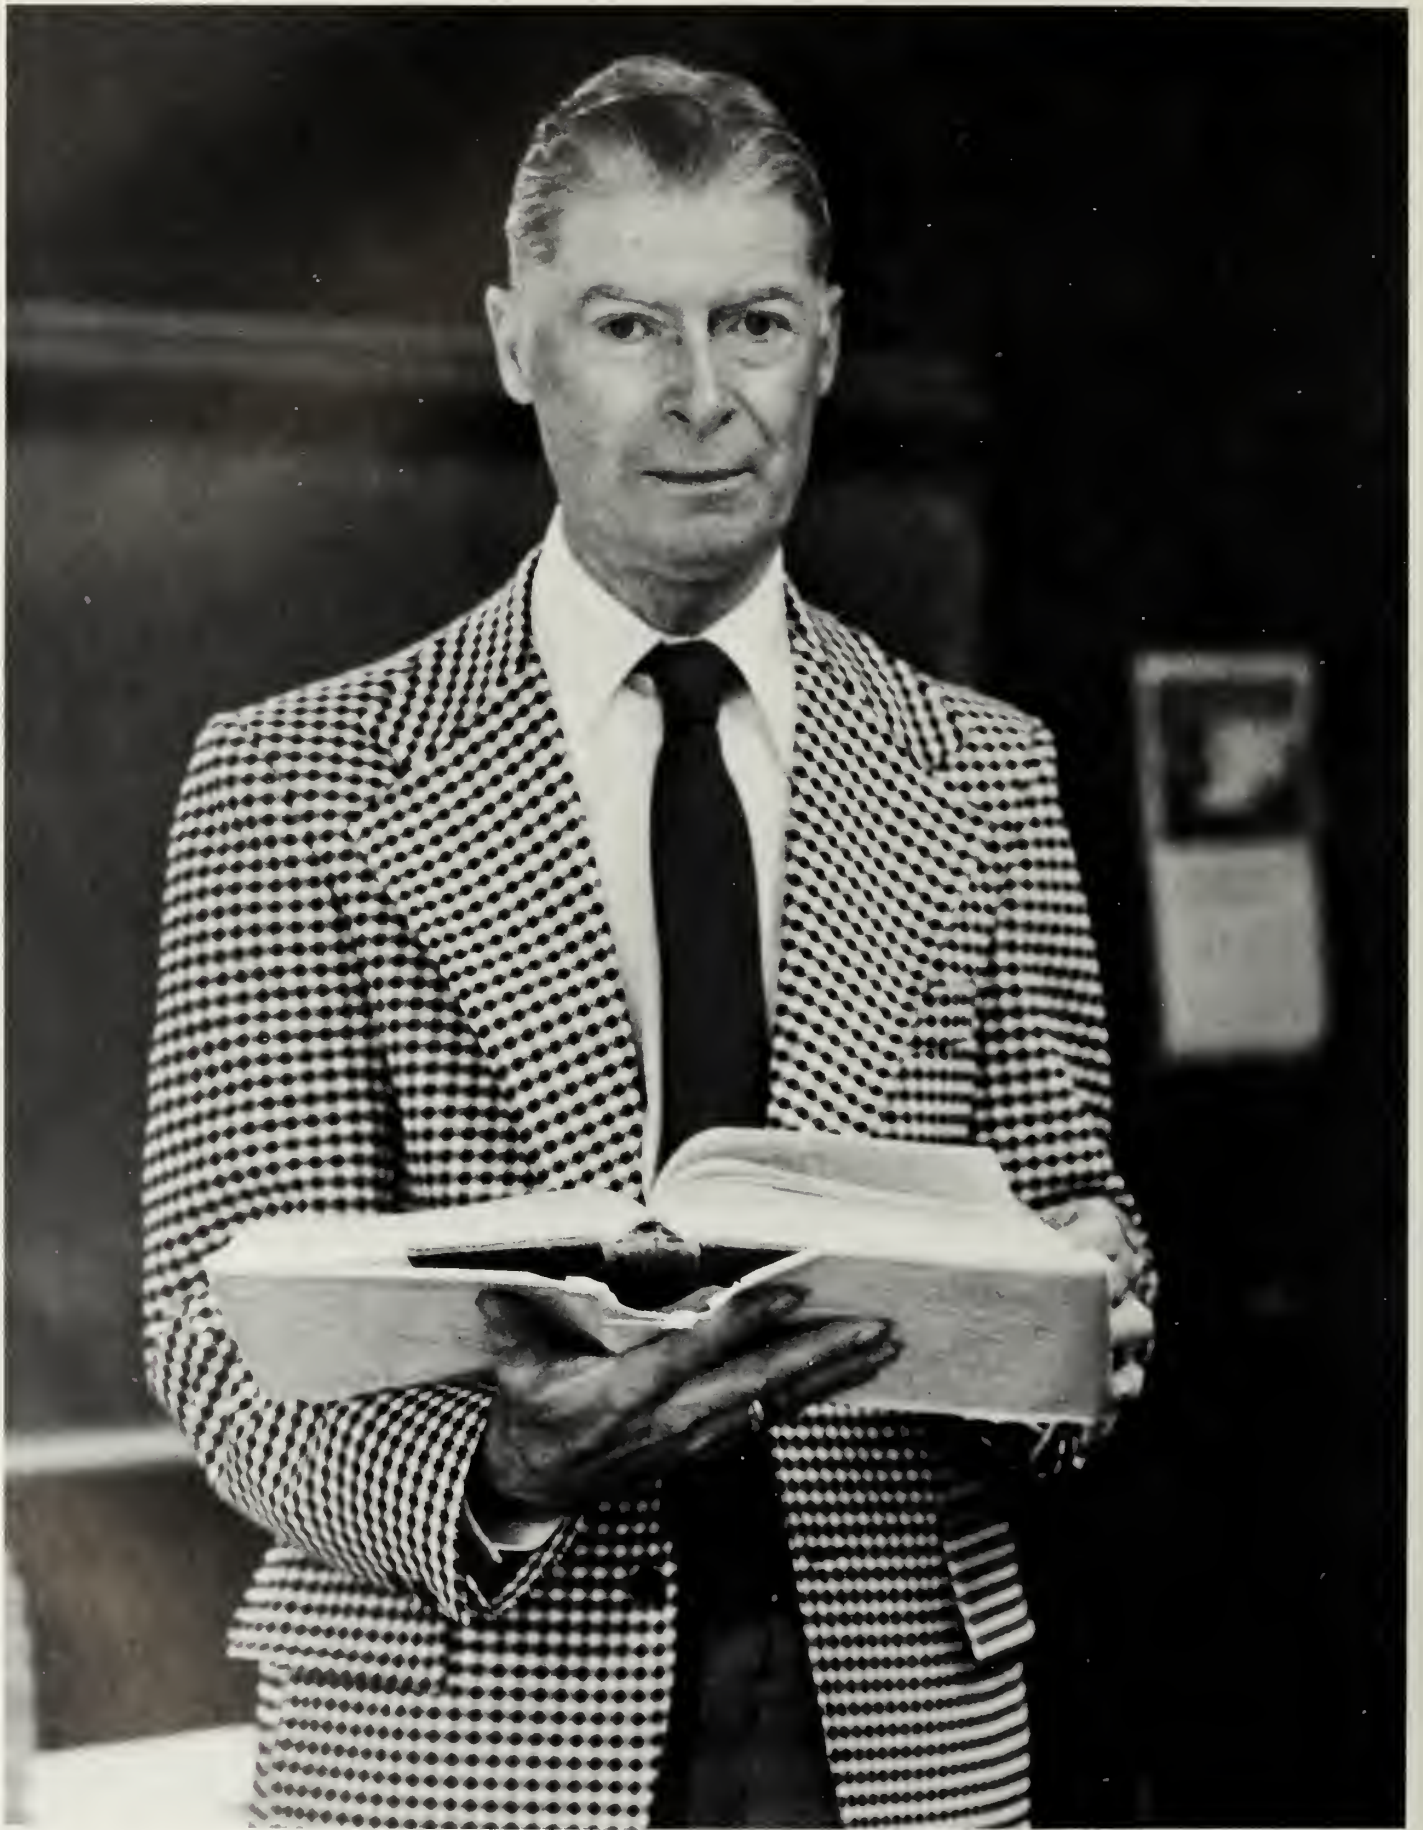

I must go down to the sea again, for the call of the running tide
Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied.

— John Masefield

To take the tide as it moves each day/With the idle ripples that come and go. — Rice

DEDICATION

JOHN P. MAGUIRE

The class of 1985 would like to dedicate our yearbook to a faculty member whose enthusiasm for teaching and interest in students has added vitality to our studies at Duxbury High School. He has spent the last 17 years enriching students with his inspiring teaching, far reaching knowledge and penetrating wit. His friendly nature and his caring personality add to his charisma as a teacher. Whether he was discussing the Boxer Rebellion or telling us first hand tales about World War II, he has made every aspect of American History come alive with his unique sense of humor. Despite all of the long essay assignments, we appreciate everything he has taught us. Though we might not be able to give him five percent of our future earnings, it is with great pride and pleasure that we dedicate the 1985 Partridge Yearbook to Mr. John Maguire.

DAILY TIDES

O faithful, unchangeable tides
That evermore upon God's errands go —
Now seaward bearing tidings of the land —
Now homeward bearing tidings of the sea —

I see you come and go, sometimes in haste,
To reach your journey's end, which being done
With feet unrested ye return again
And recommence the never ending task.

 A lot of people in Europe think drugs, criminals, rich men's parties, and things like that are the most important part of American life. The truth is that this country has more freedom than any other country in the world and most people don't spend all their time on "crazy" things.
 Most Americans work hard and they want to enjoy their money in peace.

A Sea Dream

We saw the slow tides go and come
The curving surf-lines lightly drawn
The gray rocks touched with tender bloom
Beneath the fresh-blown rose of dawn.

.....

But, one calm morning, as we lay
And watched the mirage-lifted wall
Of coast, across the dreamy bay
And heard afar the curlew call.

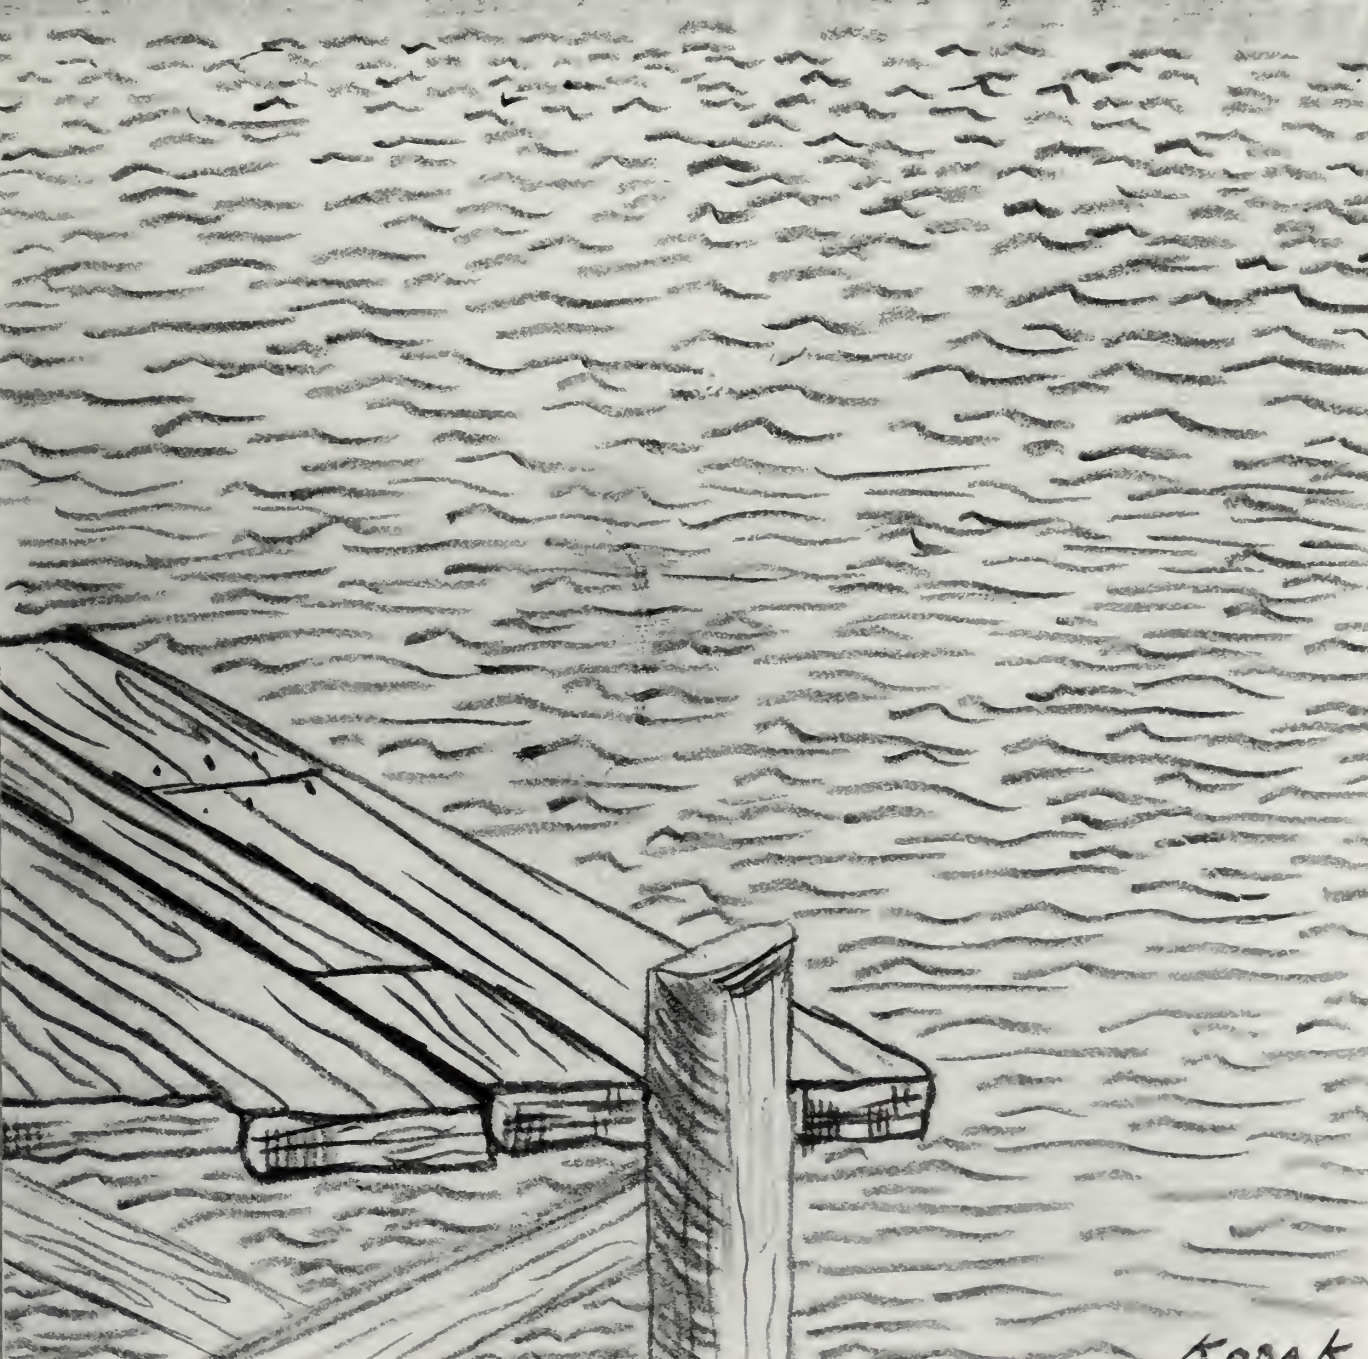

And nearer voices, wild or tame
Of airy flock and childish throng
Up from the water's edge there came
Faint snatches of familiar song.

A song that mingled joy and pain
And memories old and sadly-sweet;
While tuning to its minor strain,
The waves in lapsing cadence beat.

The waves are glad in breeze and sun;
The rocks are fringed with foam
I walk once more a haunted shore
A stranger, yet at home,
A land of dreams I roam.

— Whittier

RISING TIDES

Close beside the surging waves
I stand as if a speck.
Wandering down the little river
I fall into the broader stream.
Calm and still the mingled current
Glided to the waiting sea . . .

— Whitier

The Poet

My life is like a boat upon the sea,
As near the ocean's edge as I can get;
My tardy steps in waves sometimes o'er-treach,
Sometimes I start to let them overflow.

— Thoreau

Two Down, One To Go

Duxbury High School won the Dalton Trophy in 1981-82 for the second straight year. The trophy is the "Ernest Dalton Memorial Trophy" in honor of the memory of Ernest Dalton, the former school sports editor of The Boston Globe.

The trophy is awarded in three divisions, which are based on school populations. The overall performance of all school teams determines the divisional winners. This rating procedure makes every single game played during the year very important, because the better the record of each team, the more points are awarded.

In 1981-82 the combined boys team record was 117-31-2, while the girls teams posted a 95-17-2 record, giving an award winning total of 212-48-4. If Duxbury wins the Dalton for a third time in 1982-83, the current trophy will be "retired" permanently at Duxbury High School.

Winning the Dalton is a tremendous achievement of which the student body, faculty, administration, school committee and community are all very proud. It is truly a great honor for Duxbury High School.

After completing a 14-0-0 season in the league, the Dragons were led into the tournament by seniors Jon Patch, Matt Mahoney, Charlie Killian, Dan Pittenger, Greg Barker, and Dave Ronald. A four overtime victory over Franklin and a goal 18 seconds from the end of regulation play against Medfield highlighted a very exciting tournament. A 5-0 victory over Tewksbury concluded the season on a positive note.

Stephen Cass, the highest scorer in Eastern Mass., Matt Cushing, Eric Andrew, Dan Miller, Jim Ryan, and Doug Bean combined with the seniors for one of the most exciting seasons in D.H.S. history.

One More Time

The Duxbury Girl's Varsity Soccer Team enjoyed another outstanding season this year under the direction of Coach Pat Shea and assistant Coach Bill McNeil. The team won the South Shore League Championship and had an undefeated season for the third consecutive year.

An unprecedented 8 players made the South Shore League All-Star team this year: Julie Doscher, Kim Hatch, Lisa Macek, Sally O'Donnell, Donna Ring, and Pam Switzer. The girls also participated in the first ever South Shore League All-Star game. They beat the best the league had to offer 2-0.

Pam Switzer and Sally O'Donnell were chosen as Brockton Enterprise All-Star. Switzer was also chosen as a Globe All-Scholastic and a member of the Eastern Mass. Team. O'Donnell was chosen for the second team of Eastern Mass.

The 1982 Varsity Field Hockey team, coached by Peter Saggese and led by captains Marybeth Costello, Debbie Watson, Sudie Brown, and Kelly Nathan, finished with a 12-2-3 record to capture second place in the South Shore League. The team competed in the Eastern Massachusetts Tournament where the Dragons were defeated by Hanover in the quarter finals.

Once again, Duxbury put several girls on the league All-Star Team. They were Kelly Nathan, Heidi Cuneo and Sudie Brown. Sudie was also selected for both the Ledger and the Enterprise All-Scholastic teams. These girls represent a fine Duxbury team.

In 1982 the Duxbury High School Cross Country teams once again had winning seasons. Under the leadership of Lisa Klein and Sarah Mills the girls team soundly thrashed every opponent, achieving an 8 and 0 record. Additionally, they won the Dennis Yarmouth Invitational and the South Shore League meet. Other team members of note were Denine Allsop, Tonia Toselli, Mary Wolff, Kelly Leary, Kristy Olsen, Tammy Toselli, Elain Coughlan and Leslie Delano. The Boys' Team had a rather unique season also. Under Junior captain Eric Franke, the team went on to a 6 and 2 season. Freshman Mark Ryan placed first for the team in all but one race. He also placed third at the All State Freshman Division 2 Race. His teammates Phil Noyes and Ted Dixon also competed and finished sixth and ninth respectively at the meet. Both Girls Coach Al Hibler and Boys Coach Reggie Clark look forward to great seasons next year.

The Green Dragons can once again thank the cheerleaders for outstanding support throughout the year. A great deal of Duxbury's success is attributable to the encouragement supplied by the squad. Under the supervision of Mrs. Reed and Captains Kelli Fallon and Susan Antaya, the team proved to be invaluable to Duxbury High School's athletic teams.

The football team completed its most successful season in 1982 compiling an 8-1-1 record, which gave Duxbury second place in the South Shore League. The Green Dragons, who were led by tri-captains Chip Kispert, Tom Harrington and Brian Shaughnessy, came within a single touchdown of the League Championship and a Superbowl berth.

Duxbury's strong defense and explosive offense spelled trouble for opponents all year long and kept the Dragons at the top of the league. This intense competition provided great excitement and suspense for the enthusiastic football fans.

Credit for this outstanding season must be placed squarely upon the shoulders of Coach Dave Kispert, who over the last few years has turned a lackluster program into a well disciplined and exciting squad. As it was Coach Kispert's last year as head coach, it was only appropriate that the team performed so well.

The DHS hockey team is off to its best start ever. Through the first half of the season Duxbury is 8-2-0, losing only to defending state champion, Falmouth, and archival Cohasset. The team is led by co-captains Dave Warner, Greg Barker, Tim Ceglarski, and Chip Kispert.

If the team wins the league title or six more games, it will qualify for the state tournament for the third consecutive year. In the past two years, the team has been beaten in the tournament only by the eventual champion.

With the loss of goaltender Brian Peterson to graduation, the team is counting on senior Skip Bennett and junior Tom Harnan to take over the netminding duties.

Other seniors helping to pave the way are Dan Pittenger, Brian Corcoran, Ken Walker, Dave Jordan, Dave Robinson, and Bill Wall.

Led by head Coach Ralph Frazier and captains Tom Harrington, Brian Shaughnessy, and Jay Burke, the Duxbury High School wrestling team has achieved an excellent overall record of eight wins and one loss. The team, which is atop the South Shore League thus far with a league record of 4 and 0, owes its success to the strenuous practices and great dedication of the team members, who work very hard to be in the best possible condition.

The Duxbury High School Boys' Basketball team has seen a very successful season thus far. Under the direction of Coach Foster Cass and co-captains Jeff Kennedy and Jimmy Ryan, a junior, the team has compiled a record of six wins and two losses in the South Shore League competition. The team had mixed success in the Christmas tournament. It was defeated by Nauset, who had the home court advantage, but Duxbury later defeated Harwich. Senior team members are Kevin Roberts, Willy Meier, David Walker, and David Bergermesa, and they hope to lead the team to one of its best seasons ever.

The Dunbar High School Girls Basketball team is off to a great start this year. Led by captains Sheila Heneghan and Kim Hanco, the team is shooting for a league title and for a tournament berth. The team is relying on a strong core of seniors as Sheila Heneghan is the only senior on the team. The high scorers on the team are Julie Dawster, Sheila Heneghan, and the play-making guard Kim Hanco.

Within the league the team accomplished a great feat when it beat Acungton, who had been undefeated for three straight years. However, if it is to pull out a South Side League Championship, it must average the defeat handed to it by Conasser and Rockland. In any event, the team is in an excellent position to represent the school in the state tournament this February.

The D.H.S. Co-ed Swim team under Coach Donna Nelson began its season with a second place finish in the All Conference Relay Carnival along with a 2-0 record. Under the lead of captains Julie Edmunds, Todd Spendley, and Mike Way, the team is looking forward to another successful year. Each member swims 140 laps, which averages out to be two miles a day. This strenuous conditioning has helped them become a perennial winning team.

Springing Up and Over

The Girls' Gymnastics team under the lead of Coach Bill Thomas and captain Dawn Kates has had a mixed season thus far this year. They soundly defeated Hanover while losing a very close meet to Cohasset. The team is hopeful that the remainder of the season will be successful.

The baseball team completed a 10-9 season in '82. The team was led by captains Mike O'Brien and Chris Hines. The Dragons were frustrated by a slow start but they rebounded and won four out of their last five games to finish the season above .500. Having lost seven seniors, the Green Dragons will be a relatively young club in the 1983 season. However, Dave Walker, Chip Kispert, Mike Leary, Joe Vienneau, and League All-Star Willy Meier should provide a powerful nucleus with which Coach Murphy can work. If these fine players continue their outstanding performances, the Green Dragons could find themselves on top of the league.

The Duxbury High School softball team completed another successful season in 1982. Led by Coach Pat Shea, the Green Dragons posted a 14-4 record, which was good for second place in the South Shore League. Playing well for the Dragons throughout the season were Dawn Maconochie and Sarah Tenney, who were selected to play in the South Shore League All-Star Team. Dawn as first baseman and Sarah for her outstanding pitching. The Dragons finished the season strongly, winning five straight league games which secured them a spot in the state tournament. They met Sandwich in the opening round but unfortunately lost the hard fought contest in the bottom of the last inning with a final score of 2-1. The team has lost six players to graduation, but it will undoubtedly be in the running for the S.S.L. crown and a tournament seat in 1983.

The 1982 boys tennis team once again triumphed in the South Shore League as it swept its way to an undefeated season and the Eastern Massachusetts Championship. Although the team lost seniors Tom Walsh, Tim Doscher, David Brothers, and Captain David Hyer, this year's team will not lack experience, as lettermen Dan Pittenger, Jon Deklerk, Bill Benjes, and Steven Cass will return.

In last year's post-seasonal tournament, the doubles team of Tim Doscher and Jon Deklerk represented the school with distinction, as did Bill Benjes who played singles. However, Tom Walsh and Dan Pittenger ran into some bad luck when they were forced to default because Danny lay in a hospital bed after having his appendix removed.

The 1982 D.H.S. girls tennis team successfully captured their tenth consecutive South Shore League Championship. Led by co-captains Tracy Renner and Diedre Evans, and by Coach Faith Heneghan, who was selected as the Boston Globe Coach of the Year for Division II, the team achieved a 15-1 league record. Outstanding for the Green Dragons last spring were South Shore League All-Stars Tracy Renner, Diedre Evans, Heidi Paige, Sudie Brown and Julie Cunneen.

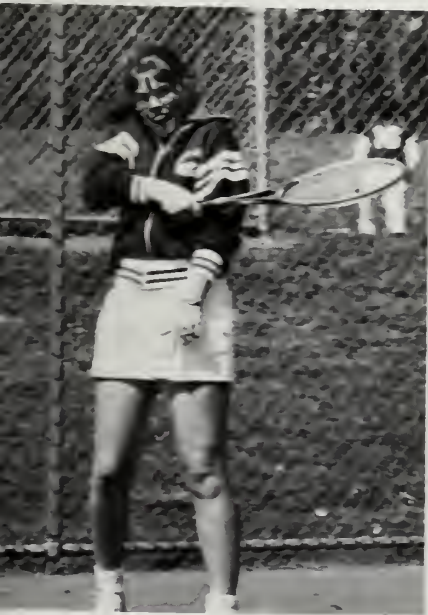

Although five seniors have graduated, a hard working group of underclassmen should help the team on to another winning season in 1983. Having reached the finals of the Eastern Massachusetts Tournament last year, Coach Heneghan looks to repeat that and hopefully win it all.

In 1982, the DHS boys' track team had its most successful season ever. Led by this year's seniors, the Dragons went undefeated in all-league, area, and state meets.

Some of the more notable members of the team include Ken Walker, an individual high scorer in the pole vault event since his sophomore year; Dave Mann, who dominated the weight events, scoring in every level meet that he qualified for. He, Graham Bouthillier, and Ralph Thomas secured a State Division C championship in the combined weight event relay. David Mullaney shattered the South Shore League record in the 440 and became the first person from the league to win that event's State Divisional Championship. Jeff Kennedy, Jim Cotter, and Tom Harrington also scored in every meet in their respective events.

The DHS girls track team dominated the South Shore League in 1982, finishing the season with a league mark of 14-0. The team did not stop there, however, but proceeded to win all four non-league meets, and compiled an overall record of 18-0. Throughout the year, Lisa Klein, a mile runner, proved to be outstanding. She was undefeated in every race and took third in the State Divisional meet. The mile relay team of Kim Hatch, Jesse Brown, Leslie Delano, and Lisa Klein, also competed in the State meet and finished fifth. The team lost a strong group of seniors, including tri-captains Tracy Delano, Maria Kelley, and Shelley Olsen, but many talented athletes have returned.

The golf team continued its perennial winning ways as it captured the South Shore League Championship after going undefeated for the season. Outstanding for the Green Dragons were Bill Archibald, who finished eighth in the Boys' State Tournament, and Siobhan Sheilds, who took second in the Girls' Division. The Green Dragons lost seven seniors, but the team will not lack talent or experience owing to Coach Hayes' policy of letting everyone who tries out practice with the team. Coach Hayes worked very hard to help his thirty golfers perfect their game. The dedication of the players as well as that of Coach Hayes is no doubt the reason for the team's success.

HIGH TIDES

There is no music that man has heard
Like the voice of the minstrel sea
Whose major and minor chords are fraught
With infinite mystery—
There is no passion that man has sung
Like the love of the deep-souled sea
Whose tide responds to the Moon's soft light
With marvelous melody.

Student Life

Is It Live or Is It Memorex?

The 1982-83 D.H.S. Band enjoyed a very successful year. This year the group contained 77 students on various horns and percussion instruments.

Marching Band practice began the second week in August and with new hats and overlays the band had an outstanding marching season. During football season the group played at home games and travelled to away games at Holbrook and Cohasset. The Marching Band also played at the soccer final, Homecoming Parade, pep rallies, and the Memorial Day Parade. This year's Drum Major was sophomore Gretchen Schwaller.

During concert season the band gave two concerts and one assembly.

Individual members of the group did very well at the auditions festivals. Five students were selected to perform with the Southeastern Mass. Senior District Band, and three of them were given All-State recommendations.

Besides the Marching and Concert Band ensembles, various students performed in smaller chamber groups such as Saxophone Quartet, Brass Choir, and Musical Pit Orchestra.

All That Jazz

This year's Jazz-Rock Ensemble is one of the best D.H.S. has ever had. It is a young group with one third of its members freshmen. The Jazz-Band performs at many concerts, parades, assemblies, and community functions. They are featured every year at the annual July 3rd outdoor concert and July 4th parade. They will also take part in the annual Jazz Festival at Scituate High School.

Orchestral-Program Flourishes

The 1982-83 Duxbury High School Full Orchestra, under the direction of James Vinci, has 58 members on string, wind and percussion instruments. The Full Orchestra performs at graduation, Christmas and Spring Concerts, and assemblies for the school. The orchestra will also compete in the "Massachusetts Instrumental Conductors Association" competition for bands and orchestras.

The following musicians are in the orchestra:
 First Violins: D. Lagerstedt, (principal player), A. Macdonald, A. Bayer, C. Coakley, D. Wiley, K. Kaplan, J. McCarthy, G. Mercer, R. Schneider; Second Violins: M. Whittum, (P.P), G. Vautrain, C. O'Brien, S. Larson, J. Doonan, T. Riser, L. Pittsley, N. Zammitto; Violas: K. Whittum, (P.P), K. Kriegel, S. Landers, S. Flanagan, L. Holden; Violoncellos; S. Mills, (P.P), J. Spinale, R. Doucette, J. Moe; Contrabasso: J. Hall, (P.P), P. Showstead, B. Oates, P. Lewis. Regina Schneider is this years student conductor and Sarah Mills is the Orchestral Librarian.

An integral part of the high school orchestral program are the students who select orchestra as a major and who play in the small orchestra. In the Christmas Concert, they provided accompaniment for an alumnus soloist, Beth MaCloud. They also played in numerous performances at the elementary schools and throughout the community.

The D.H.S Quartet gave memorable performances in the concerts and throughout the school system.

DHS string Quartet: D. Lagerstedt, A. Bayer, A. Macdonald, S. Mills.

K. Whittum playing with some vibrato

Duxbury orchestral students proved their superior musical talents by placing nine students in the Senior District Orchestra, a record high for Duxbury. Two musicians, Amy Bayer, and Donna Lagerstedt, did exceptionally well and received All-State recommendations.

In its fifth year, the orchestral program has experienced continual growth, not only in enrollment and quality of music, but also in the dedication towards the attainment of musical excellence.

HALLELUJAH!

1982-83 has been an exciting year for the 52 voice Duxbury High School choir. The Christmas season was busy with concert appearances at both elementary schools, the intermediate school, high school assemblies as well as the evening concert where alumni, faculty and friends joined in for the "Hallelujah Chorus."

The Chanticleers, in its second year, went coed and changed its style and format. This 12 voice jazz-pop ensemble appears separately from the choir and this year included Duxbury House nursing home and the second floor of Lord & Taylor among its concert settings.

The choir displayed its talents this year when six members made district. Sharon Larson, Linda Dulany, and Amy Thevenin did so well that they also received all-state recommendations.

Other highlights of the year included the spring concert, fund-raising, the March Choral Festival at the intermediate school, the awards banquet, and finally singing for graduation.

Drama 100's

The DHS Drama Club is a very active organization which concentrates on achieving excellence in the dramatic arts. The club presents ten shows during the school year.

The sophomores won this year's Fall Tournament of Plays with their presentation of "Final Dress Rehearsal." The other plays were "A Black Comedy" by the seniors and the freshman play, "Kiss Me Quick, I'm Double Parked." In December the seniors put on their annual Class Play entitled "Happy Days" and in January the Three Act Play "The Matchmaker" was held. Additionally the music and drama departments joined together to produce the all-school musical Officers Peterson, D. MacFarlane, J. Whitemore, Back now, J. Borin, S. Larson.

The Show Goes On!

"Swain Pacific" which was held in March. This year Duxbury again entered the Mass. High School Drama Festival State Competition with "More Soon Theatre."

Besides the actual performances, the club also holds a workshop once a week for the purpose of building and tearing down sets, preparing lighting, and doing the "dry work" that goes into a show. The upperclassmen are usually the "teachers" and then pass on their knowledge to the sophomores and freshmen.

Senior club members will not soon forget the long hours spent in rehearsal, exciting show nights, and the traditional opening night parties at Howard Johnson's.

Within the Drama Club there is a small group who are members of Thespians Troupe #111, the Duxbury chapter of the International Thespians Society. Membership is selective and based on a system of points, which are obtained through work on the various shows. Last year the Troupe had 24 members out of over 150 drama participants. The officers were Danni MacFarlane, President, Joyce Whitemore, Vice President, Sharon Larson, Secretary, and Joe Foran, Treasurer.

NHS Provides Free Tutoring

The National Honor Society is made up of people who excel in the areas of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Each year, students in the eleventh and twelfth grades whose marks meet the standards of the Honor Society are given the opportunity to apply for membership. They are reviewed by a faculty panel, and those who meet the set requirements in the other three areas are accepted.

This year, the induction ceremony was held on the night of Dec. 3, and 40 juniors and seniors were inducted. The Honor Society was fortunate to have Mr. Walter Birge as guest speaker. Once a member of the Foreign Service, Mr. Birge speaks four languages fluently, has been almost everywhere, and knows a great deal about almost every possible subject, from French to philosophy. An excellent speaker, he held the complete attention of his audience as he spoke about the four qualities necessary for membership, sometimes serious, sometimes funny. The choir and jazz band entertained everyone at a reception afterwards.

This year's officers are President, Claudia O'Brien; Vice-President, Sharon Larson; Treasurer, John Schlueter; Secretary of Publicity, Amie Macdonald; and Chapter Secretary, Catherine Fisher. The Honor Society hopes to raise enough money to provide scholarships for five of its members.

The Honor Society is also sponsoring a free tutoring program for a service project, which has met with tremendous response. Students from all grades have signed up, hoping to improve their grades. Tutoring is in all major subjects areas: math, sciences, languages, and English. It is a relief to the students who have been paying the going rate of fourteen dollars an hour.

SENIORS

This year, the Seniors were interested in raising money for future reunions. Due to the success of a dance held in October, only one other is needed to reach their desired mark. Most of their attention is now focused on fast approaching graduation, which is hoped to be one of the best ever.

JUNIORS

The annual junior class officers' meeting was held over the summer at the York Steak House. The result was a great dance and a turkey shoot.

The Juniors have held many other fundraisers this year in hope of a successful Junior Prom, which is to be held May 13 at Christos II. Chairperson Polly Weyand is confident that Friday the 13 won't prove to be a jinx!

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomores were mainly interested in raising money for the important events that will be taking place in their junior and senior years. They held several dances which were well attended and were equally successful in other fundraisers. The Sophomores hope to have even more of their classmates helping them next year.

OFFICERS: President, Lisa Richards, Vice-president, Mary Wolfe, Treasurer, Libby Hacker, Secretary, Tracy Small.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen had a very successful first year in high school. After a few meetings over the summer the class came up with the idea of selling chocolate bars as a fundraiser. The plan met with tremendous success, selling more than sixty boxes and involving eighty students. With their profits they generously donated $150 to the Distributive Education program for the continuation of the solar greenhouse project. They are planning to have very productive years at DHS.

We the People

The 1982-83 Student Council had a very productive year and succeeded in reaching many of its goals. The general purpose of the Student Council is to be conscious of student welfare at all times, to promote student involvement in student activities and government, to help organize and coordinate student activities, and to serve as the united voice of the student body.

The Council consists of 5 members elected from each grade level. This year the officers chosen by the Council were Chris Beeby, President; Polly Weyand, Vice-President; Susan Antaya, Treasurer; and Keli Fallon, Secretary.

The Council held meetings every other week and followed parliamentary procedure as explained in Robert's Rules of Order. In fact, the Council worked on completing a formal constitution of Duxbury High School student government.

Additionally, the Council successfully ran the community and school Blood Mobiles. The Council was in charge of the bulletin board in the school's front lobby and kept the student body well informed about school activities. The Council also improved their communication with the Student Advisory Council and now the two groups are working well together.

The Council accomplished quite a lot and had a very rewarding year.

SAC Sponsors Program of Assemblies

The Student Advisory Council, representing the student body of Duxbury High School, communicates students' opinions, feelings, and needs to the Administration and to the School Committee. Additionally, the S.A.C. is responsible for informing the student body of administrative and School Committee decisions that pertain to the students. The Student Advisory Council consists of five members who are elected annually by the entire high school body. This year's members are President Jennifer Hall, Amie Macdonald, Secretary Amie Bayer, Bobby McEachern, and Anne Gardner. It is their responsibility to attend School Committee meetings regularly, making a presentation every 4-8 weeks or when the need arises in order to inform the School Committee on specific issues that students are concerned with.

This year the Student Advisory Council has been advising the administration with ideas on school building improvements. It has also sponsored a program of assemblies. Its first assembly took place on Oct. 25th and was in connection with the National Day of Dialogue on the topic of nuclear war. The students saw a film called "War Without Winners" and got a chance to hear Dr. Muirhead, the school physician, talk about the medical effects of a nuclear explosion. There was also dialogue and discussion within the classrooms about nuclear war.

Another big event that the Student Advisory Council helped coordinate was a Southeastern Massachusetts Regional Conference for Student Advisory Councils and School Committees that was held on February 9 and was hosted at Duxbury High School. This conference covered many areas including how and why to read a school budget; the history and purpose of the Student Advisory Councils; how to communicate with adults; and how to represent the student body. This was the first time that students and adults on School Committees had the chance to meet as a region and share ideas and concerns.

Over one million students each year participate in the National Merit Scholarship Program by taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. Fifty thousand of the highest scorers on the test receive some form of recognition. Thirty five thousand of these high scorers will be named commended students and will be sent a letter of commendation. Such students score at or above the national qualifying selection index score set for commendation (usually above the 95th percentile).

The names of approximately 15,000 semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, are notified through nationwide public announcement. Only semifinalists receive consideration for scholarships.

The semifinalists represent less than 1/2 of one percent of the nation's senior class. Only semifinalists who qualify as finalists can advance in the competition and compete for Merit Scholarships. Finalists are considered for more than 5000 Merit Scholarships.

The class of 1983 in Duxbury had four merit semifinalists and ten commended students.

Five Future Statesmen

Boys' and Girls' State is a program sponsored by the American Legion for high school juniors. It involves visiting a college campus for a week of rigorous training in American Civics. Much more than an academic course, Boys' and Girls' Staters take an active part in forming and operating their own towns and cities. In addition, participants run for office on a "local" and "national" level, making speeches, alliances, and gaining valuable experiences in the field of politics. The staff at

Boys' and Girls' State consists of counselors from previous "states" and knowledgeable professionals from politics and law who instruct Boys and Girls Staters from practical experience.

Two exceptional Boys Staters are chosen by their peers to attend Boys National convention of 100 young men from around the country.

Although its basic purpose is to instruct young people in civics, Boys' and Girls' State also devotes ample time to athletics and recreation. Boys' and Girls' Staters come away with a feeling of accomplishment and a new understanding of local politics. Boys' and Girls' State can open doors for a young person who successfully participates in addition to providing life time friends.

Foreign Friends

AFS stands for American Field Service, a world-wide organization that seeks to foster peace among nations by increasing knowledge and awareness of each other's cultures. They do this by various exchange programs which provide opportunities for Americans to go abroad for a summer or a year and for foreign students to come to the United States for a year. This year, Duxbury is fortunate to be hosting two foreign exchange students, Jack Visser from the Netherlands and Jule Dervovic from Yugoslavia.

The main responsibility of the high school club is to help the foreign students adjust to the American culture. AFS is also a social club. It has various activities: a Halloween party, a Christmas party and a Valentine's party, all with the Plymouth and Marshfield clubs.

Various fundraising activities are undertaken including bake sales, a calendar sale, and the big money-maker, a fruit sale. The majority of the money is used to help fund the short term exchange, an exchange the club does for four or five days with another club in another area of the United States. The rest of the money will help finance a club trip to Martha's Vineyard in the spring.

This year the club has grown tremendously and has been very successful with all its activities. The faculty advisors in 1982-83 were Miss Linda Coombs and Miss Ann Marie Driscoll. The officers were Julie Edmunds, President; Kim Clark, Vice President; Nancy Merrifield, secretary; and Julie Hawkins, treasurer.

Food, Glorious Food

The Home Ec department offers a cross section of courses in the three areas of Home Economics: foods and nutrition, clothing construction, and human development.

Students, whether broadening their interests, preparing for a professional career or seeking vocational education, elect courses from any of the three main disciplines. Each discipline has an entry level class with levels of advancement offered.

The foods program offers a variety of choices starting with three basic courses. In these courses, basic cooking skills are stressed as they relate to the preparation of yeast breads, soups, salads, vegetables, meat, poultry, eggs and cheese.

Nutrition and menu planning are emphasized. Students may then advance to foreign and regional cookery where they learn advanced food preparation techniques while exploring foreign and regional foods and customs.

If a student is interested in a career in food service, he may choose The Bread Board. This course offers hands-on training for students and involves them in all aspects of operating a small restaurant. This includes menu planning, inventory control, preparing, and serving food, and money management.

The restaurant menu consists of hot and cold sandwiches, soups, salads, beverages, and desserts, along with a variety of weekly specials. The restaurant is open to school staff and the community.

Clothing students may choose from three levels of courses, starting with a basic clothing course in which simple construction techniques are stressed. A variety of projects are made including skirts, dresses, pants, and kilts. In the second year, the students are required to work with plaids and add a lining to at least one project. Clothing III requires a custom blazer or coat using wool fabric, and includes bound buttonholes, lining, and underlining. A designer pattern of the students choice completes this year.

Students are involved in teaching lessons, supervising activities, and observing children, as well as planning lessons for the following activities: music, art, crafts, yard play, and nutritious snacks. Child development theory as well as hands-on training is available for any student interested in a career working with small children.

The Distributive Education Class

In Business

Deca is the Distributive Education Club of America. It is made up of students from Distributive Education classes I and II. These students, who join voluntarily, have a choice of working in the areas of retailing, food service, credit and financing, and advertising. The club gives students practical training, marketable job skills, and it is also a lot of fun.

The club runs the DECA Board, which is the school store. Everything from candy to school supplies and T-shirts are sold at the store, which is open during lunch and after school. The DECA Board gets a lot business from both students and faculty members and makes profit, which is used to help fund such things as field trips. Deca also held a book sale and a turkey raffle in November to help raise money.

The DECA club also operates the warehouse supply area, which is located in the back of the student lounge. They are in charge of distributing supplies to all of the Duxbury Public Schools. They use their home office's computer to keep inventory of the merchandise in the warehouse and DECA Board.

In February, Duxbury DECA students entered a competition, which was held in Hyanis, against DECA clubs from other districts. The students played the roles of employer and employee as well as worked on advertising and retailing. Duxbury did very well in the competition. The top six students went to the finals in Worcester, and the top seven in this competition will go to the national finals in New Orleans.

DECA continues to grow in size and quality every year, and we can look forward to someday having a Duxbury DECA student in the national finals in New Orleans.

The library/AV service course provides the opportunity for students to develop skills in audio recording, video and TV, photography, equipment repair and print duplication.

This past year 30 students were involved with the AV course. They learned a variety of skills to help in the daily operation of the media center. The majority of the skills are learned by "hands on" application of their newly acquired skills. The students became involved in many aspects of library/AV services including video program distribution, the operation of AV equipment, videotaping of "live" events around the school, and the circulation and distribution of print materials.

S.T.O.P.

The Duxbury High School chapter of S.T.O.P., Student, Teacher Organization to Prevent Nuclear War, just began this year and is one of many nation-wide groups of high school students and teachers committed to informing their communities of the dangers of the nuclear arms race. This group is distinctive in that it couples the energy of youth with the guidance of educators, and it has a specific goal: the reduction of the threat of nuclear war. The group shows that young people need not capitulate and remain inactive when the future of the world is at stake.

The S.T.O.P. group hopes to reduce the apathy evident in society and to educate the public on this issue. They believe young people can contribute in a unique, essential way to regenerate realistic hopes for the future.

The Duxbury High School faculty is a group of professionals who obviously are very dedicated to teaching and who continually set high standards for their students. Being a teacher involves far more than trying to teach students various subject matter, though this is an important aspect of their job. Teachers also act as role models for students, and they help students develop their own values, character and intellect.

In addition to the patronage they show to individual students, DHS teachers display great interest and support in students' extracurricular activities, pep rallies, dances, athletic events, concerts, and plays. DHS students are very appreciative of this support as it makes school life more enjoyable and bolsters school spirit.

Two teachers who have made large contributions to the high school are leaving this year.

Mrs. Genevieve Osborn (not pictured in the faculty section per her request) is retiring after 9 years of dedicated service in the Business Department. Mrs. Osborn, a quiet and humble woman, was genuinely interested in the success and performance of her hundreds of students.

Hard at work!

School would be wonderful, except for the work. However, with six 55 minute periods a day, work takes up a large portion of student's time. Besides having to do homework every night in every class, students often are studying for tests and quizzes given on scheduled test days. Midterms and finals, which each count as 10% of a student's final grade, are also cause for quite a bit of turmoil. Many of the lessons, however, are interesting and fun. Reading a good book or doing a special project is always worthwhile and rewarding. In the end, it is hoped that all their obligations will help enrich student's lives now and in the future.

Brian, what does that say?

Educational Variation

Are taking notes and tests the only way to learn? Not at Duxbury High School! In this great school, there are those who are dedicated to making learning fun and worthwhile. Without these people, school would indeed be dull.

For the creative students, there are playwriting courses and computer programming. The regular art courses provide painting, drawing, pottery, and more, and music encourages students to find hidden talents.

At Duxbury High, there are teachers who put in many hours of their free time to supplement their classes or to be an advisor for a student activity. Mr. Frieden plays the guitar for students and Mr. Bristol hosts a political group. Mr. Buechler took the more adventurous members of his English class to New Hampshire at the end of November to hike 4,500 foot mountains during sleet and rain storms in order to imitate the Greek warrior Xenophon.

The Guidance Department and many student groups sponsor educational events also. This past year the AFS gave a presentation which gave students a look at the cultures of Yugoslavia and the Netherlands, and the Student Advisory Council set up a debate on nuclear disarmament. Guidance again sponsored its annual Career Night where students could find information on occupations of interest to them.

All these events play an important role in student life; without them, most students would not want to attend school at all. It is hard to be enthusiastic about copying notes six hours a day. A teacher knows that there is no better way to hold a student's attention than to provide a break in the routine work of the class. These pages are dedicated to the many different, noteworthy methods of teaching.

Working towards perfection.

Sew What?

Saws, Sanders, and Solder

The Duxbury High School Industrial Arts Department offers students six major areas of study. The use of hand and power tools is stressed in the wood department. Upon graduation, students have the ability to create almost anything out of wood; pulleys, tables and lamps are among a few of these projects.

The metal shop provides students with the opportunity to weld and solder instead of gluing and nailing as is done in the wood shop. The metal workers are skilled indeed as they can do as much with their alloys as the woodworkers do with their pine.

Duxbury High School also offers students electronics courses to enable them to get a head start in this rapidly expanding field. They study and use semi-conductors and other facets of modern electronics, and in the process understand their uses and how to trouble shoot various systems. After successfully completing these courses, students are well on their way with a sound basis in electronics.

Also offered by DHS is mechanical drawing. Skills which are very important in precisely representing projects of extensive detail are taught to the draftsmen.

In Graphic arts, which also requires precise and accurate drawing, students learn to develop film and layout newspapers and similar publications. The graphic arts department provides programs for DHS plays and other activities. Computer typesetting has recently been added to update the program.

The final field of study is power mechanics, which deals with theory, repair and practical operation of the internal combustion engine.

All of these classes provide entertaining yet practical skills, which aid students immensely in seeking a career.

It's Time To Relax

DHS teachers have been successful in teaching students how to budget their time, when it comes to having fun, that is. Students take full advantage of the five minutes between classes and their 18 min. break. Lunch provides the best opportunity for students to socialize. Students exchange the gossip of the day, relax, and finish chemistry problems during the all too short lunch period. Although there is only a short time during classes, socializing is accomplished.

"Famous Final Scene"

The Pilgrim Tennis Club never looked more romantic than it did the night of May 14, 1982. Tennis courts were ingeniously transformed into beautiful dining areas and dance floors with elegant balloons and flowers. All this work was done by the dedicated Prom Committee: Pam Switzer, Sheila Heneghan, Chip Kispert, Stephanie Condrick, Keli Fallon, Julie Todd, Julie Corsi, Sandy DeLella, Eileen Hannon, Kristin Johnson, and chairman Laurie Sylvia. They were aided tremendously by the Junior Class Advisor, Walter Kennedy.

"Famous Final Scene", from the Bob Seger song, was the theme chosen for the prom by all juniors through a secret ballot vote. In order to preserve this historic night for posterity, couples were able to have their pictures taken in the upstairs area of the club. In fact, the pictures were so popular that dinner, originally scheduled for 7:00, was not served until 8:00.

People, dancing to the music of "Full Tilt," filled the rooms with beautiful sights and sounds. The array of flowing gowns and dapper tuxes made the chaperones' work of choosing the Prom Queen and her court very challenging. Their final decision was Erin Shields for queen. She looked lovely wearing a white dress and pearls. Her court was Kristin Johnson attired in a white tiered dress and a ribbon in her hair, along with Kim Knox wearing flowers in her blonde hair. Their dates were Buster McCarthy, Lee Kennedy, and David Hyer, respectively.

As the music died down and the couples left the dance floor, the "Famous Final Scene" came to an end, a peaceful echo of an enchanted evening.

A Weekend To Remember

Homecoming 1982: were you there? Do you remember how the seniors were victorious, easily winning the Spirit Contest by wearing native Californian purple and plaid (often in their hair)? The Seniors also outperformed the underclassmen, winning the Tournament of Skits; the performance was masterminded by Keli Fallon and the skit was a speculation of what their 10th Class Reunion would be like.

Senior Homecoming Queen were Kristen Johnson, Erin Shields and Kelly Nathan. Accompanying them were the four Homecoming Kings — Mike Moore, Joe Vieneau, Ken Walker and Greg Barker. Underclassmen royalty were as follows: for the Juniors, Chrisie Duffy, Queen, was escorted by Paul Leary; the Sophomore Queen, Kelly Gifford, was escorted by John Brigham; Allison Corsi, Freshmen Queen, was accompanied by Chris Cicerelli.

This year's Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the renowned DHS Yearbook staff, was the highlight of the weekend, drawing an unprecedented crowd. In heightened spirits after the Football victory earlier in the day, students danced to the music of East Coast until 11:30 p.m.

'U.S. Plans Big Spending Increase For Military Operations in Space

Program Includes Better Satellites, Gathering of Intelligence and a Cargo Role for the Shuttle

By RICHARD HALLORAN
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 — After a quarter-century of mostly peaceful exploration of space, the United States has begun a vast expansion of its military operations there.

In the next five years the Reagan Administration plans to increase spending on military operations in space even faster than the rest of the military budget.

Better satellites are planned for highly sophisticated communications, intelligence gathering, navigation, weather forecasting and mapping. The space shuttle, having carried its first military payload, will replace rockets as the primary vehicle for lofting military cargoes into orbit.

The Administration has undertaken elaborate new measures to defend satellites and has ordered a ground-based antisatellite system to be ready by 1987. It has also stimulated research to develop a new generation of advanced weapons such as lasers, though officials say they do not plan to station weapons in orbit.

The Producers

Editor's Note

Producing the 1983 Partridge has taken a lot of hard work, but it has also been a lot of fun. Moreover, it has been a tremendous learning experience for everyone involved. In future years I hope this yearbook will bring back vivid memories of life at Duxbury High School in the year 1982-83.

This book could not have been put together without the guidance and help of our advisor, Mary Kelly. I want to thank her for all the hours upon hours that she spent working with us. I would also like to thank my mother and father whose support made it possible for us to meet every deadline.

Jennifer Hall
Editor-In-Chief

The Staff — First row: Kim High; Back row: Pam Switzer, Joe Vienneau, Julie Pisani, Michael Raftery; Missing: Tracey Reed, David Robinson.

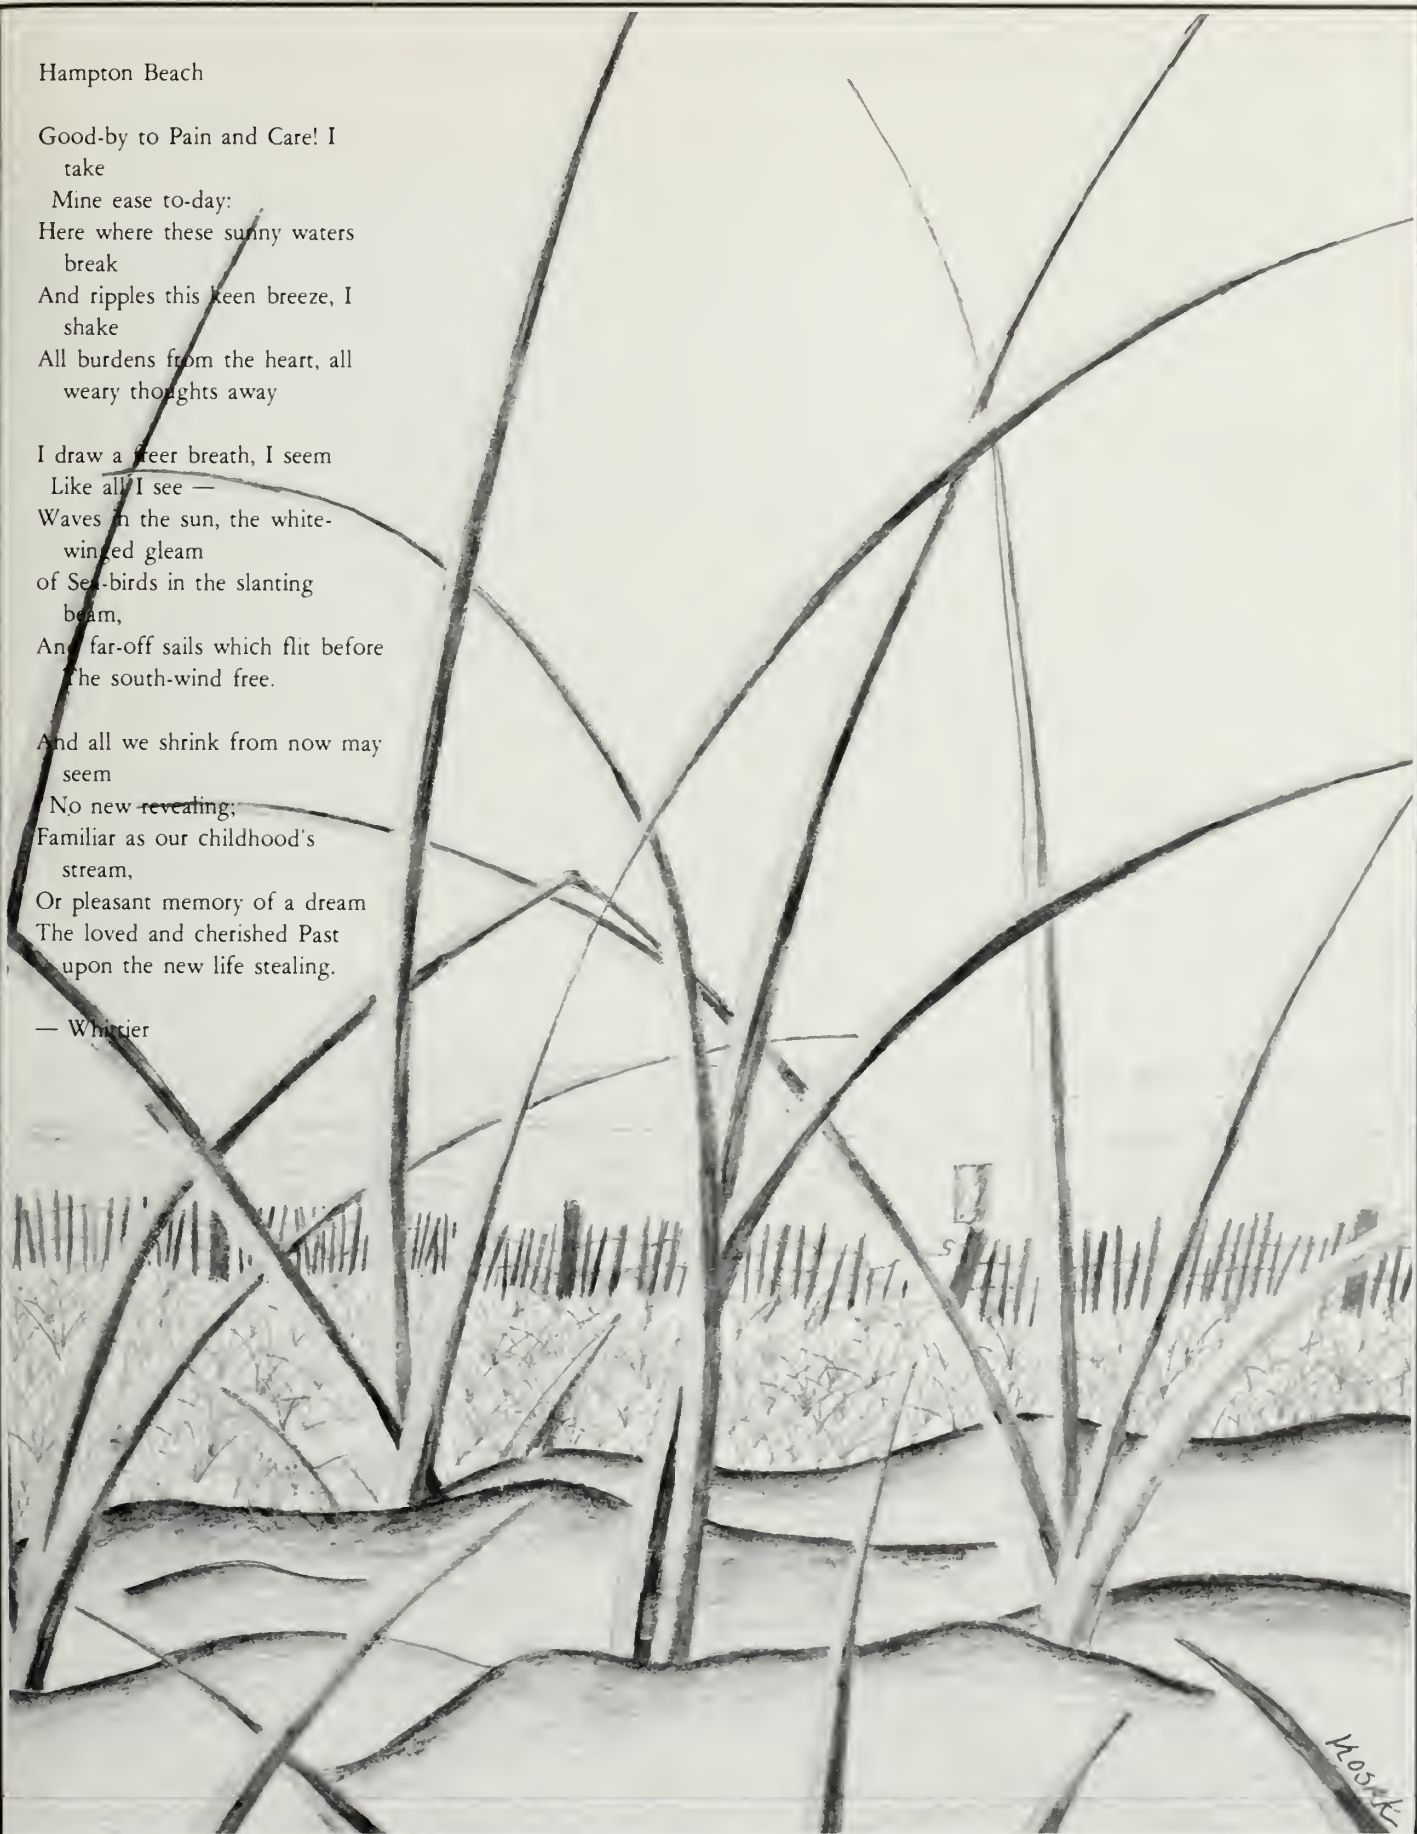

Hampton Beach

Good-by to Pain and Care! I take
Mine ease to-day:
Here where these sunny waters break
And ripples this keen breeze, I shake
All burdens from the heart, all weary thoughts away

I draw a freer breath, I seem Like all I see —
Waves in the sun, the white-winged gleam
of Sea-birds in the slanting beam,
And far-off sails which flit before
The south-wind free.

And all we shrink from now may seem
No new revealing;
Familiar as our childhood's
stream,
Or pleasant memory of a dream
The loved and cherished Past upon the new life stealing.

— Whittier

The Tides

I saw the long line of the vacant shore
The sea-weed and the shells upon the sand
And the brown rocks left bare on every hand
As if the ebbing tide would flow no more.
Then heard I, more distinctly than before
The ocean breathe and its great breast expand
And hurrying came on the defenseless land
The insurgent waters with tumultuous roar.
All thought and feeling and desire, I said,
Love, laughter, and the exultant joy of song
Have ebbed from me forever! Suddenly o'er me
They swept again from their deep ocean bed,
And in a tumult of delight, and strong
As youth, and beautiful as youth, upbore me.

— Longfellow
